

C24 creates alliance with Novotronic

C24 have created a business alliance with Novotronic so as to develop a shared vision.

Birmingham November 2010 – C24 the managed hosting and application delivery specialists have entered into a business alliance with Novotronic the SharePoint experts. The alliance will allow the two companies to deliver a shared vision for the delivery of hosted Microsoft Sharepoint solutions, drive new growth opportunities and also has the potential to deliver unique Microsoft Sharepoint solutions within specific marketplaces.

Paul Hemming, Managing Director of C24 commented “we have a long standing relationship with Novotronic and have a number of shared clients; both companies felt it was important that we placed the relationship on a more formal footing as we could see moving forward, significant growth for Microsoft SharePoint within our existing client base. It is also important for C24 to have a Microsoft SharePoint offering and in our opinion there is no better Microsoft Sharepoint house than Novotronic”.

Steve Eyton-Jones, Commercial Director of Novotronic added “having a reliable partner with extensive skills and experience of delivering professional managed services to blue chip organisations is critical to us. Our applications rely on having properly configured and managed infrastructure to deliver a great service to our end users. We are looking forward to developing our relationship with C24 further over the coming years.”
